

The new season for flowers in public spaces. Flower towers Terra Group

It's already summer, so the season of flowering cities has begun for good. Town Halls, offices – all kinds of public buildings are visited by hundreds of clients. Usually, these visits are not much awaited – how to change it then? A professional service does matter here, however, that's not all...

Trzebnica, Poland | Source: www.terra-flower-tower.com

It is so much nicer to enter a well-maintained building, which thanks to its surroundings, gives more positive impression. First few moments are crucial, regardless of the business branch! Aesthetic surroundings are the key to success and a chance to build a proper image.

Trzebnica, Poland | Source: www.terra-flower-tower.com

In case of public buildings, the best solution are flowers. Flower towers are an excellent idea. It is a proven way to bring into the area plenty of various colors at the same time, alleviating shapes of the public buildings, which are often quite homogeneous and austere.

Trzebnica, Poland | Source: www.terra-flower-tower.com

Such a composition was set in Trzebnica, a Polish town. The closest surroundings of the Town Hall encourage the citizens to visit the place, making it pleasing to the eye.

Trzebnica, Poland | Source: www.terra-flower-tower.com